A group of four people are gathered in a bright, modern living room. Three women and one man are dressed in formal evening wear. Two women stand in the center, wearing long, flowing, sequined dresses in shades of rose gold. They are holding champagne flutes and smiling. A third woman is seated on a light blue tufted sofa in the foreground, wearing a sleeveless dress with a dark floral pattern. She is also holding a champagne flute. The man stands to the right, wearing a dark blue checkered suit and a black tie. He is holding a champagne flute and looking towards the women. The room features a large white-framed mirror on the wall, a potted plant on the left, and another potted plant on the right. A bouquet of pink and yellow roses sits on the sofa in the foreground. The overall atmosphere is elegant and festive.
